RESTAURANT

The Broken Oar Restaurant is the perfect Moab dining destination. Our wide variety of homemade food provides a great escape from the usual mass-produced chain food available. Come tap into something cold with one of our many draft beers, which includes a great selection of local brews, or if it's wine that fits the mood, you won't be disappointed as we have a great selection of local and imported wines.

Our unique restaurant decor is best described as "cozy mountain cabin" meets "ski lodge." Relax by our stone fireplace in the cooler months or enjoy the warm atmosphere provided by our enormous outdoor deck and watch, as your food is flame broiled to perfection on our "Fat Daddy," Moab's first and only outdoor grill.

If you are looking for a great spot to relax after enjoying the variety of Moab's activities, The Broken Oar is your place. The Broken Oar has a casual social atmosphere that is greatly enhanced by the excellent service provided by its staff.

The Broken Oar can take care of all your large group needs whether it is for a meeting, social gathering, wedding reception, bus tour, family reunion, or birthday gathering we can accommodate. This unique feature is available for breakfast, lunch and dinner with a wide variety of food and menu options for you to choose from. Our restaurant seats up to 150 people inside and 50 people outside. The Broken Oar and its staff are committed to providing the best dining experience for you and your group no matter how big or small.
