

CATARACT CANYON EXPRESS

2 DAY CATARACT CANYON

This 120-mile expedition takes you through the notorious Cataract Canyon, which offers some of the wildest whitewater around. During the months of May and June we get our spring runoff, during this high water season is when the rapids are the most extreme. From July through October the water levels drop. bin b\ no means does it make the river placid. Later summer offers pristine sandbars, warm water and plenty of sunshine. Rated as one of the best rafting trips in America this 1 day trip is spectacular for those who are looking for a quick dose of adventure. Rapid class varies depending on water levels; trips begin and end in Moab, Utah.

Day 1: You'll depart from the Adrift office, 378 N. Main, for a 20 min. (approx.) drive to the Potash boat ramp. You will then launch from the ramp into a geologic marvel. The Colorado Plateau will give you awesome views of towering cliffs, spirals and a great sense of adventure. Buffet lunch, dinner and camp at the rivers shore. The first day is smooth water as you'll float by Ancient Anasazi Indian ruins and enjoy the magic of the Colorado River and dramatic rock formations.

Day 2: After a hearty breakfast you'll embark for nearly 30 rapids on the Colorado River that include the Big Drops. Mile Long. Little Niagara, Satan's Gut. Capsize and Imperial just to name a few. Once completing the rapids you'll motor to Hite Marina on Lake Powell and finish your journey with an optional van ride ($60 pp) or flight ($130 pp) back to Moab.
